ARAB-ISRAELI CONFLICT

Modern World Studies

By setting contemporary problems and developments in their historical perspective, the Modern World Studies aim to help students aged 14-16 to understand their present world. Two studies cover one and a half terms' work and form part of a new GCE O level/ CSE syllabus developed by the Schools Council History 13-16 Project.

The Contemporary World background topic provides information on the social, political and economic framework of the modern world, through a Pupil's book, Teachers' guide and pack of 22 overhead transparencies with accompanying notes.

Arab-Israeli Conflict
7157 1556-9; Teachers' guide 7157 1641-7; Filmstrip notes 7157 1642-5; Filmstrip 7157 1643-3; Tape 7157 1644-1

The Rise of Communist China
7157 1558-5; Teachers' guide 7157 1646-8; Filmstrip notes 7157 1647-6; Filmstrip 7157 1648-4; Tape 7157 1649-2

The Irish Question
7157 1557-7; Teachers' guide 7157 1659-X; Filmstrip notes 7157 1661-1; Filmstrip 7157 1660-3; Tape 7157 1662-X

The Move to European Unity
7157 1559-3; Teachers' guide 7157 1663-8; Filmstrip notes 7157 1665-4; Filmstrip 7157 1664-6; Tape 7157 1666-2.

The Contemporary World
7157 1667-0; Teachers' guide 7157 1668-9; Overhead transparencies pack 7157 1669-7

Holmes McDougall Ltd Edinburgh