'Members of the Grenzpolizeikommissariat were, apart from a few exceptions, perfectly happy to take part in shootings of Jews. They had a ball! ... Nobody missed them.

'I want to stress again that people are giving a false impression when they say today that the actions against the Jews were carried out unwillingly.

'The hatred against the Jews was great, it was revenge and people wanted money and gold. Let's not delude ourselves: there was always something up for grabs during the Jewish action.'
