Dear Mike,

Sorry not to have replied sooner. I have been out.

1. I don't know what is meant by "reversionary tenancy rights". I have just assumed that any permission to put up an aerial would (if it were needed at all) have to come from the owners of the flat (your mother and me) rather than from you. I don't feel inclined to spend money taking legal advice on this. I suggest that we let it drop. Do you agree?

2. The proceeds of the sale of your house in Birmingham were paid into your trust. I thought that you knew this.

Like you, I would like to get this wrapped up. Would you please let me know how things stand now with you and Morag.

Try to relax. Everyone, including Morag, wishes you well.

I want to phone Morag again this evening so I would appreciate an e-mail or a phone call letting me know how you now feel .

Dad
